

SERIES: Ephesians
Christians Are Not Chameleons
Ephesians 4:17-24

You Must Leave Your Old Life (4:17-19)

- Living like the world is intellectually _____. (17)
- Living like the world leaves you spiritually _____. (18)
- Living like the world makes you morally insensitive. (19)
 - When you become calloused to sin, you become _____ with sin.
 - The more you consume sin, the more you will _____ sin.
- Living like the world makes you shamelessly _____. (19)

You Must Learn Christ (4:20-21)

- Have you learned the _____ of Christ?
- Have you heard the _____ of Christ?
- Have you been taught the _____ of Christ?
 - The blood of Christ has paid not only to set us free, but to _____ us free.
 - God convicts us of sin so we will not _____ in sin. (1 John 3:8-9)

You Must Live A New Life (4:22-24)

- Strip off the old rags of _____. (22)
 - Sin always _____.
 - Sin never _____.
- Be renewed in the spirit of your mind. (23)
 - The way you live begins with the way you _____. (Prov. 23:7)
 - Saturate yourself in the _____.
- Put on the new robe of _____. (24)
 - God did not save you to make you _____.
 - If God saved you, you have been made _____. (2 Cor. 5:17)

"The true Christian hates sin, flees from it, fights against it... and longs to be completely delivered from it."

– J.C. Ryle

SERIES: Ephesians
Christians Are Not Chameleons
Ephesians 4:17-24

You Must Leave Your Old Life (4:17-19)

- Living like the world is intellectually unproductive. (17)
- Living like the world leaves you spiritually separated. (18)
- Living like the world makes you morally insensitive. (19)
 - When you become calloused to sin, you become casual with sin.
 - The more you consume sin, the more you will crave sin.
- Living like the world makes you shamelessly impure. (19)

You Must Learn Christ (4:20-21)

- Have you learned the way of Christ?
- Have you heard the call of Christ?
- Have you been taught the truth of Christ?
 - The blood of Christ has paid not only to set us free, but to keep us free.
 - God convicts us of sin so we will not continue in sin. (1 John 3:8-9)

You Must Live A New Life (4:22-24)

- Strip off the old rags of rebellion. (22)
 - Sin always lies.
 - Sin never satisfies.
- Be renewed in the spirit of your mind. (23)
 - The way you live begins with the way you think. (Prov. 23:7)
 - Saturate yourself in the Scriptures.
- Put on the new robe of righteousness. (24)
 - God did not save you to make you nice.
 - If God saved you, you have been made new. (2 Cor. 5:17)

"The true Christian hates sin, flees from it, fights against it... and longs to be completely delivered from it."

– J.C. Ryle