SERIES: Gospel of John

Divine Bread and Sovereign Election

John 6:35-40; 44

Has Jesus Failed?

- Jesus has offered himself to the crowd as the bread of life.
 - He is the giver and the gift.
 - He is the baker and the bread.
- The crowd's hearts are so blind and hard that they refuse to believe in Jesus.
 - Despite our blindness, God is never frustrated by human unbelief.
 - Despite our resistance, Jesus never fails in saving his people.

The Elect Have Been Given to Jesus by God (6:37)

- God's call to salvation is unconditional.
 - o It is not based on who we are.
 - It is not based on what we have done.
 - It is not based on how we would respond.
- God's call to salvation is effective.
 - This compels humility in ourselves.
 - The creates hope for others.

The Elect Will Come to Jesus Because the Father Draws Them (6:37, 44)

- We are unable to come to God on our own. (John 6:44)
- The Father must draw us to the Son, because we will never come on our own.
 - o God uses the gospel to draw the elect to saving faith in Jesus. This is the external call.
 - o God uses his Spirit to draw the elect so they come to Jesus. This is the internal call.

The Elect Are Powerfully Kept by Jesus and None Will Be Lost (6:37-39)

- The giving is the powerful work of the Father.
- The coming is the powerful work of the Spirit.
- The keeping is the powerful work of the Son.

The Elect Will Be Raised by Jesus on the Last Day (6:39-40)

- Death appears to be a great loss.
- However, not even your body will be lost.

How Do We Apply a Doctrine Like This?

- Let the doctrine of election encourage you to exalt God.
 - o Praise Him for his mercy.
 - He would be just to condemn all of us.
 - He is gracious to save some of us.
 - Pray for the completion of his mission.
- Let the doctrine of election encourage you to examine yourself.
 - o If you are not a Christian, believe the gospel!
 - One important question: How can I know if I am one of God's elect?
 - One simple answer: "Everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day."
 - o If you are a Christian, preach the gospel!

SERIES: Gospel of John

Divine Bread and Sovereign Election

John 6:35-40; 44

Has Jesus Failed?

•	Jesus has offered himself to the crowd as the bread of life.
	 He is the giver and the
	 He is the baker and the
•	The crowd's hearts are so blind and hard that they refuse to believe in Jesus.
	Despite our blindness, God is never by human unbelief.
	Despite our resistance, Jesus never in saving his people.
The E	lect Have Been to Jesus by God (6:37)
	God's call to salvation is unconditional.
	o It is not based on we are.
	It is not based on what we have done.
	 It is not based on we would respond.
•	God's call to salvation is effective.
	o This compels in ourselves.
	The creates for others.
The E	lect Will to Jesus Because the Father Draws Them (6:37, 44)
	We are to come to God on our own. (John 6:44)
	The Father must draw us to the Son, because we will never come on our own.
	 God uses the gospel to draw the elect to saving faith in Jesus. This is the call.
	 God uses his Spirit to draw the elect so they come to Jesus. This is the call.
The E	lect Are Powerfully by Jesus and None Will Be Lost (6:37-39)
	The giving is the powerful work of the
	The coming is the powerful work of the
•	The keeping is the powerful work of the
The E	lect Will Be by Jesus on the Last Day (6:39-40)
	Death appears to be a great loss.
	However, not even your will be lost.
	50 100 to 1
How [Do We Apply a Doctrine Like This?
•	Let the doctrine of election encourage you to God.
	o Praise Him for his
	He would be just to condemn of us.
	He is gracious to save of us.
	o Pray for the completion of his
•	Let the doctrine of election encourage you to yourself.
	 If you are not a Christian, the gospel!
	One important question: How can I know if I am one of God's elect?
	 One simple answer: "Everyone who looks on the Son and believes in him should have eternal life, and I will raise him on the last day."
	o If you are a Christian, the gospel!