Judges 20: The Painful Process of Purging Evil

- Sin is never private.
- Sin will bring about God's judgment.
- Sin must be dealt with, not defended.
- Sin causes us to fight with each other.
 - The failure to conquer Canaan and walk with God has led to civil war.
 - They are not fighting God's enemies; they are fighting God's people.
- Sin distorts justice.
 - This is not justice. It is genocide.
 - Bitterness leads to vindictiveness.
 - The only way to avoid bitterness is to practice forgiveness.

Judges 21: Messy Situations... Messy Solutions

- Israel tries to solve their problems, but they keep creating bigger problems.
- Even though we are the problem, we cannot be our own solution.
- We need a righteous king to rule us and a merciful king to rescue us.
 - We need a deliverer who can come without being called for, since human beings are not really seeking God (Rom. 3:11).
 - He will have to do it all himself, since we will not be able to contribute anything to our salvation.
 - He will save us through weakness, a victorious defeat—through his death, not just his life.
 - We need a king who can “purge” us of evil in our hearts, not just in our society.
